A WORD FROM THE LORD

I am causing My Ekklesia to arise in the earth today. I am causing My Ekklesia to arise with courage and boldness that they have never walked in. They will now govern for Me and My kingdom. For My will, will be done and My kingdom will be established. I have found a people that will allow My Spirit to work through them. They will bind what needs to be bound, and they will loose what needs to be loosed. They will open doors that need to be opened, and they will close doors that need to be closed. They will no longer allow the traditions of men to hold them back any longer. They will not allow a spirit of religion to keep them blinded. But My Ekklesia will arise in the earth a mighty force against the powers of darkness, and they will know that all of heaven is backing them up.
